

The Mighty Eighth Air Force

Presents the Return of the... "Big Bombers"

Golden Wings Museum

Friday July 17th Through Monday July 20th

Featuring the historical B-17 Flying Fortress and the B-24 Liberator, B-25 Mitchell and P-51 Mustang. For a special thrill, come take a flight on these historical aircraft. "Dawn & Dusk Flying Patrols" are being offered for a tax-deductible $425.00 per person in the B-17 & B-24. The P-51 is offering $2,200 for a half hour of flight instruction and $3,200 for a full hour of flight instruction. Each flight provides passengers the sights, sounds, smells and excitement of a historic mission..... although chances of encountering enemy fighters will be slim.

A $4.00 donation to the 8th Air Force allows visitors to tour the "Golden Wings Museum" This private collection of "living history", features some 25 unique and one-of-a-kind aircraft from America's Golden Age of Aviation (1920's - 1930's) Among rarities NASA's first aircraft, a stainless steel amphibian and a the first airplane in which a pope ever flew. New to the collection is a 1927 Ford Tri-motor; this full ground-up restoration is America's oldest existing airliner. Charles Lindbergh and Amelia Earhart are among the many notable aviators who have flown this aircraft. The doors will be open from 8:30am to 9:00pm each day.
